

The Rainbow Fish.

Fill in the missing words:

|      |           |      |
|------|-----------|------|
| sea  | rainbow   | blue |
| play | wonderful | fish |

A long way out in the deep blue _____ there lived a fish. Not just an ordinary fish, but the most beautiful _____ in the entire ocean. His scales were every shade of blue and green and purple, with sparkling silver scales among them.

The other fish were amazed at his beauty. They called him _____ Fish. "Come on, Rainbow Fish," they would call. "Come and _____ with us!" But the Rainbow Fish would just glide past, proud and silent, letting his scales shimmer.

One day, a little _____ fish followed after him. "Rainbow Fish," he called, "wait for me! Please give me one of your shiny scales. They are so _____, and you have so many."

The Rainbow Fish.

True or False?

|                                                                                          | True | False |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
| The author writes the story.                                                             |      |       |
| The illustrator draws the pictures.                                                      |      |       |
| The Rainbow Fish looked the same as all the other fish.                                  |      |       |
| The Rainbow Fish lived in a little pond.                                                 |      |       |
| A little blue fish wanted one of Rainbow fish's beautiful scales.                        |      |       |
| Rainbow fish had scales that were black and brown and red.                               |      |       |
| The other fish described the Rainbow Fish as beautiful.                                  |      |       |
| The Rainbow Fish visited a wise Octopus who lived in a dark cave.                        |      |       |
| The Octopus told the Rainbow Fish how to become popular.                                 |      |       |
| The Rainbow Fish felt happier when he started to give his scales away to the other fish. |      |       |
| The water was dirty.                                                                     |      |       |